— OF —

JERSEY CITY.

1893--1894.

Pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to reorganize the local government of Jersey City," passed March 31, 1871, the Board of Aldermen of Jersey City met at the aldermanic chamber, City Hall, on Tuesday, May 2, 1893, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May.

The Board was called to order at eight o'clock p. m. by Reuben Simpson, its President, elected at the charter election held April 11, 1893.

The roll was called and the following named Aldermen appeared and took their seat:-

First Aldermanic District—Michael Day.

Second Aldermanic District—Pierce J. Fleming, Patrick Norton.

Third Aldermanic District—Edward J. Farley, Joseph T. McCoobery.

Fourth Aldermanic District—Richard Lahey, John C. Martin.

Fifth Aldermanic District—Harry Hill, Max Salinger.

Sixth Aldermanic District—Alexander B. Dusenbery, John C. Kaiser.

Absent—Alderman Thomas J. Kelly First Aldermanic District.

The President addressed the Board as follows:

Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen:—In assuming the duties of the office of President of this Board, it is with a feeling of hesitancy, that I may be unable to fulfill with satisfaction to all, the duties of the office. I can only say that I shall,

to the extent of my ability, endeavor to faithfully do my duty with impartiality, to all, and with no notice other than the protection of the city's welfare.

The people expect us to aid and carry out all matters that tend to municipal reform. We need pure water, rapid transit, better pavements, cleaner streets, cheaper gas. One of the first means to accomplish the desired end is to do away all mismanagement. The public expect retrenchment and reform in all matters of public expense. Salaries of city officials, if too high, should be reduced. Any official not needed should be discharged. These matters of public expense, so far as in us lies, should be attended to, or we shall be derelict to our trust. The citizens desire a great reduction in the tax levy in the matter of public expenditures for the public service. Our tax rate is too high. The only way to reduce the same honestly is to reduce expenses. We may encourage judicious public works that will add to the valuation of property in the city, but the first step is to stop all waste and mismanagement. If by reducing our municipal business to the simplest rules possible, and at the least expense, we can save money to the rentpayer and the taxpayer, we shall earn the goodwill of the public at large, and help on the work of municipal reform. Asking at your hands your kind forbearance, I promise you my best efforts to do all in my power to aid you in your deliberations.

On motion of Alderman Salinger the Board proceeded to the appointment of a City Clerk, and nominated John E. Scott.

OFFICERS' COMMUNICATIONS.

The City Clerk laid before the Board the following communications from His Honor, the Mayor, filed in the City Clerk's office, May 8, 1893, and the same was read, received and ordered to be entered in the minutes:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CITY HALL,

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 2, 1893. }

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return without my approval the resolution of your Board passed April 21, 1893, to wit:—"Resolved, That the sum of $250 be paid to Richard Wade for painting, papering and cleaning Aldermanic Chamber." I have been advised that the amount ordered paid to Mr. Wade is excessive.

Very respectfully,

PETER F. WANSER,
Mayor.

The City Clerk laid before the Board the following communication from His Honor the Mayor, filed in the City Clerk's office, May 9, 1893, and the same was read, received, and ordered to be entered in the minutes:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL,

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 9, 1893. }

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return without my approval the resolution passed by your Board at its meeting held April 25, 1893, designating the Jersey City Democrat, under the provisions of Chapter 75 of the Laws of 1892, as the newspaper to publish the names, residence and place of business contained in all applications or petitions for licenses to sell spirituous, vinous, malt and brewed liquors. While the act does not in express terms provide that such advertisement shall be in one of the official newspapers of the city, I think that is the fair intent of the law. The Jersey City Democrat is not an official paper, and persons interested in ascertaining the information thus published would naturally look for it in one of our official newspapers. The regular advertising rates for the work as provided in the Act of 1892, with the proof of publication, would amount to about $2,000 in all. Last year one of our official newspapers performed this work for the sum of about $650. I have communicated with the publishers of the Evening Journal and the Jersey City News, the regular official daily papers of the city, both of them are willing to perform the work at last year's price, this would effect a saving of about $1,300, which I advise you to make. It may possibly be that your Board by inserting the words "at regular advertising rates" intended to allow only the rates of last year and not those fixed by the Statute of 1892, but the language is at best capable of either construction. Moreover, I am in doubt as to whether the Jersey City "Democrat" is a daily newspaper within the legal definition of that term in this State as it has not yet been published for a period of one year.

Very respectfully,

PETER F. WANSER.

Mayor.

The report of the Inspector of Buildings for April 1893, showing the number of permits issued for erection of new buildings valued as follows was presented, received and ordered filed:—

The following preamble and resolution were offered by Alderman Norton and adopted:

Whereas, C. P. Gillin and other property owners on Grove street, north of Pavonia avenue, have presented a protest to this Board against a double track of iron rails on said part of said street, because the width of the street is not sufficient to admit of a double track if used for the proposed trolley system

Resolved, That while in common with the petitioners this Board does not wish to stand in the way of any public improvement, yet we know that two tracks in a thirty-foot roadway would make this street a mere thoroughfare for cars, to the detriment of the business of every man owning property thereon.

Resolved, That as representatives of the people directly responsible to them, this Board of Aldermen do most solemnly protest against the surrender to any corporation of the easement in front of every lot fronting on Grove street, north of Pavonia avenue, sought to be obtained by the projectors of the proposed trolley system.
